Introduction

All praise is for Allah, we praise Him and seek His help and forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allah from the evil of ourselves and our actions. Whomsoever Allah guides cannot be led astray. Whomsoever Allah misguides, none can guide him. I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped except Allah, alone without any partner, and that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger.

Dedication

To learners eager to commit to daily recitation of the Quran and to complete Juz Amma.

Acknowledgments

I give special thanks to all the sisters I have had the opportunity to teach.

Preface

I compiled these pages in hopes of helping people establish the habit of reading the Quran every day and to offer suggestions for those interested in memorizing Juz Amma.

Objective

The objective of this book is to encourage and help some members of the community to complete memorization of (at minimum) Juz Amma and to read the Quran daily.

Obtaining the objective

Each person makes a personal commitment to the Quran every day, which may include memorizing, reviewing, and listening to its recitation. Please consider this project for your children if you have already completed these goals.

Essential guidance

These lessons are for those who have not quite completed Juz Amma and find it difficult to recite an entire Juz during Ramadan. Meanwhile, it is most helpful if you have completed both Module 1, Arabic Essentials, and Module 2, Literacy Enrichment. In other words, you can read the Quran with a smooth flow.

Determine how long it takes you to read a page of the Quran.

- Set your timer and read a page of the Quran, read a page you haven't memorized and aren't familiar with
- Copy the time it takes you to complete a page.
- Note: If reading an entire page is difficult for you, read 5 lines and multiply them by 3. Keep in mind, you wouldn't read 5 Ayahs, but 5 lines.
- Record your timing: _____
- If your time exceeds 10 minutes, it is highly recommended that you complete Module 2, Literacy Enrichment, before these lessons, although you may still find some benefit.

The LEARNING QURAN SERIES is designed to give the learner a foundation in the Arabic Language, focusing on the commonplace words in the Quran and the basics of Arabic Grammar.

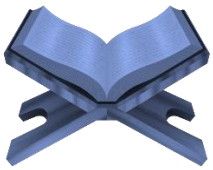
Beginning with Module 1, Arabic Essentials, "Learn to Read and Write," the learner learns to read and write Arabic in 15 lessons. All vocabulary words have been extracted from the Quran.

Next is Module 2 Literacy Enrichment, "Become an Effective Reader". This book is designed to enhance the skills learned in Module 1 and further acquaint learners with the Quran. This book also has 15 lessons, covering the rules of stopping, symbols in the Quran, and more!

Module 3 Nouns, "Grammar & Word Acquisition," begins with Arabic grammar and includes a series of sight words for each lesson. The same pattern is followed with Module 4 Verbs, "Grammar & Word Acquisition".

Modules three and four each take about one year to complete. Upon completion of these two modules, the learner will have learned 80% of the Quran's vocabulary, according to Dr. Abdul Azeez Abdul Raheem, the author of the famous "Madinah University Arabic Course" books. Completion of modules 1-4 provides learners with a primary study of the language that will allow them to effectively move on to more advanced works, such as the "Madinah University Arabic Course", 40 hadeeth, etc.

Next, Tajweed Assist, Improving Recitation, Module B. This book covers 60 simple lessons on the fundamentals of Tajweed.



قٓ ۚ وَٱلْقُرْءَانِ ٱلْمَجِيدِ

By the Glorious Quran 50:1

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا ٱلذِّكْرَ وَإِنَّا لَهُۥ لَحَٰفِظُونَ

Indeed We have revealed the Quran and surely We shall preserve it 15:9

- During the time of the Prophet (ﷺ), the Quran was preserved through memorization.
- Two years after the death of the Prophet (ﷺ), Abu Bakr ordered the collection of the Quran so it wouldn't be lost.
- Zayd bin Thaabit compiled the Quran into a single manuscript under the authority of Abu Bakr.
- Uthmaan completed the script of the Quran, solidifying its manuscript 15 years after the death of the Prophet (ﷺ).
- Consequently, we read the Uthmaani Manuscript.
- Read from a Uthmani Script Copy of the Quran.

Recite

Aisha reported, The Prophet, ﷺ, said:
"The person who is proficient with the Quran, is with the righteous and noble scribes. The one who recites it, although it is difficult for him, has a double reward."
Muslim~

Quran Commitment

Make a daily commitment to yourself to approach the Quran by reciting, listening to, or memorizing it. Imam Nawawi said: "Reciting the Qur'an is the most important form of remembrance, and it should be done regularly. No day or night should pass without reciting it. That may be attained by reciting a few verses."

Moreover, Ibn Abbas said: "Allah took responsibility for the one who reads the Quran and acts upon it; he will not go astray in this life or despair in the hereafter." Thus, be firm about your personal commitment to approaching the Quran daily.

And Shayk Saalih ibn Abdullah al Fawzaan reminds us that: "The Muslims should never leave off reciting the Quran regardless of their reading ability."

On the next page, you will find a calendar that you may use to get started with your commitment to reading the Quran every day. Each person varies in their ability. Recite what you can and work to increase your amount. Have a partner join you in the endeavor, or join a group that will help you stay consistent with your goals.

Your daily Quran commitment amount: _____

Monthly Calendar - Continuous Goals
Sun	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat
Daily: Recite Aayatul Kursee after each prayer. Recite the last two verses of Soorah al Baqarah every night. Commit yourself to reading the Quran every day.
Weekly: Read Soorah al Kahf every Friday.
Recite virtuous Suwar: Recite from the "Ha Meem" Suwar. Recite Soorah al Mulk every night. Listen to Al-Baqarah and Al-Imran daily.
Memorize from the Mufassal: Complete Juz Amma (30)

Motivating Fact:

If you read 18 lines a day, you'll complete the Quran in a year,

The virtue of reciting one letter from the Quran

Abdullah bin Masood reported, The Messenger of Allah, ﷺ, said, "Whoever recites a letter from the Book of Allah, he will receive one good deed as ten good deeds like it. I do not say that Alif Lam Meem is one letter, but rather Alif is a letter, Lam is a letter, and Meem is a letter."

Some virtues of reciting the Quran

Abu Umama said he heard Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) say: "Recite the Qur'an, for on the Day of Resurrection it will come as an intercessor for those who recite it. Recite the two bright ones, al-Baqarah and Surah Al 'Imran, for on the Day of Resurrection they will come as two clouds or two shades, or two flocks of birds in ranks, pleading for those who recite them. Recite Surah al-Baqarah, for to take recourse to it is a blessing and to give it up is a cause of grief, and the magicians cannot confront it."

The virtue of reciting Aayaatul Kursee after every salah

Abu Umamah reported, The Messenger of Allah, ﷺ said: "Whoever recites Aayaat al-Kursee after every prescribed prayer, there will be nothing standing between him and his entering Paradise except death."

Virtue of reciting Soorah al Mulk

Abu Hurayrah reported, I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ saying: "There is a soorah in the Quran which contains 30 Aayaat which kept interceding for a man until his sins are forgiven. This soorah is 'Blessed is He in Whose Hand is the dominion' (i.e., Soorah al Mulk 67).

Virtue of 100 Aayaat at night

Tameem ad Daaree reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever recites (in prayer) with 100 verses in a night, it will be written for him as a devout obedience to Allah for the night."

Virtue of the last two verses of Soorah al Baqarah at night

Ibn Masood reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever recites the last two verses of Soorah al Baqarah at night, they will suffice him."

Some virtues of reciting the Soorah al Kahf

Al-Bara' reported that a person was reciting Surat al-Kahf, and there was a horse tied with two ropes at his side, a cloud overshadowed him, and as it began to come nearer and nearer, his horse began to take fright from it. He went and mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ in the morning, and he (the Prophet) said: That was tranquility which came down at the recitation of the Qur'an.

Some virtues of reciting the Soorah al Kahf on Yawmul Jumuah

Abu Saeed Al-Khudri reported: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever recites Surat al-Kahf on Friday will have a light between this Friday and the next."

Virtues of the “Ha Meem” Suwar 40-46

- Ibn Abbas said, “Everything has an essence, and the essence of the Quran is the family of Ha meem.”
- Ibn Masood said: “When I reach the family of Ha meem, it is like reaching a beautiful garden, so I take my time.”
- Humayd bin Zanjuyah narrated that Abudllah said: “The family of Ha meem are the splendor of the most beautiful gardens in relation to the rest of the Quran.”

On the following page, you will find a table with reading suggestions for the month of Ramadan or any time. During Ramadan, the reward for recitation is reciting in Arabic. Simultaneously, we must be affected by the Quran. Hence, I selected a portion from each Juz of the Quran to recite each day. If you can read more, you should. You may also choose to memorize a soorah. The repetition of memorizing is highly rewarding. Remember, you receive a reward for every letter you recite. Nonetheless, establish goals you can commit to. Consistency is key!

Monthly Calendar – Ramadan Reader
Sustainable Daily Readings for Ramadan

Narrated Abu-Hurayrah:
Jibreel used to repeat the recitation of the Qur'an with the Prophet once a year, but he repeated it twice with him in the year he died. Also, The Prophet (ﷺ) used to stay in I`tikaf for ten days every year (in the month of Ramadan), but in the year of his death, he stayed in I`tikaf for twenty days.

Remember, Day 1 is the night the moon is sighted, and each new day begins at Maghrib.

"The best among you are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it."

Bukhaari~

Establish study methods that work for you and continue using them until you reach your goals. Keep reading journals and write down the benefits as you read.

Memorize

Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Amr: that the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "It shall be said - meaning to the one who memorized the Qur'an - 'Recite, and rise, recite (melodiously) as you would recite in the world. For indeed your rank shall be at the last Ayah you recited.'"

Tirmidhi~

When Memorizing Quran:

1) Seek the aid and assistance of Allah and make your intention behind memorizing sincerely for him.
2) Increase in your dua, Allah to grant you success in memorizing His book.
3) Have a strong determination, making time and effort to complete your Hifdh.
4) Listen to the soorah begin recited by a Qari.
5) Always use one copy for your memorization, as your mind remembers the print and changing copies will hinder your Hifdh.
6) Read the English and the Tafseer of the soorah you are memorizing.
7) Write the Aayaah as you memorize them.
8) Attentively work towards applying the Qruan.
9) Recite what you have memorized to your teacher or someone more proficient than you.
10) Recite or listen to the soorah 10x. Then recite the 1st Ayah 10x, then move on to the next Aayaah, reciting it 10x. Connect the soorah together one step at a time. When you can say the Aayah/soorah without looking, you have it memorized. However, you must review what you have memorized every day for 2-5 weeks.

Benefit:

Kissing the Quran after recitation must be avoided. It is an act of innovation. Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, came to the Black Stone during Tawaf (circumambulation), kissed it, and said, "I know that you are a stone, you do not cause benefit or harm; and if it were not that I had seen Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) kiss you, I would never have kissed you."
